

downloads from specialized portals and blogs. Feedback shows that there is great interest in the books published by InTech. Members of the above portals are expressing immense gratitude to our authors for sharing their findings in Open Access publications.

We hope that you are as proud as we are, and we thank you once again for participating in this worthwhile project.

You can take a few simple steps yourself to help promote your publication to an even wider audience. These steps include:

- Linking your chapter to your personal website or blog
- Linking your chapter to your faculty / organization website
- Linking your chapter to your library's website and informing your librarian
- Depositing your chapter in the repository system of your university
- Sending a link to your chapter to your fellow scientists
- Sending short notices about your work using Twitter or Facebook, making it visible to your LinkedIn groups or other social networks
- Being interviewed by your publishing company InTech, and getting your interview published on our blog and promoted online (contact your Publishing Process Manager about an interview)
- Writing a soft introduction for a wider audience, so that InTech may include it in press releases for popular science news portals

We'll be glad to help you in bringing your work to the attention of your colleagues worldwide, so please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to going forward with you into a bright future - a future where all scientists can harvest the benefits of sharing their ideas and connecting with their colleagues around the world.

Kind regards,

Ms. Sandra Bakic

Prof. Paulo Pêgo receives ABC Scientific Publication Award

Professor Paulo Manuel Pêgo Fernandes, a member of the Editorial Board of BJCVS, and colleagues received the VII ABC Scientific Publication Award for the work entitled "Hemodynamic effects of experimental right ventricular overload" (available at: http://www.scielo.br/pdf/abc/v96n4/en\_aop01811.pdf). This work is part of the doctoral thesis of the student Flavio Brito Filho, guided by Professor Paulo Pêgo.

The winning articles were selected by 30 national experts, and considered issues related to the originality and relevance of the research topic, the outline of the methodology, the impact of the results in its area of knowledge and the clarity and appropriateness of the conclusions presented.

The ABC Scientific Publication Award was established in 2005 by the Brazilian Society of Cardiology (SBC), with the aim of encouraging and recognizing the national scientific production in cardiology. In 2010, Professor Paulo Pêgo had already received this award for the work "Left sympathetic block by thoracoscopy in the treatment of dilated cardiomyopathy".
